Second Restorative Afternoon Detention

Name:	House:
Date:	Year Group:
Issuing Teacher's Name:
Reason for Detention:
Complete the following questions:
Outline why you have received this detention – explain what happened and how it happened.	Outline the rights and responsibilities that were not followed and resulted in this incident – refer to page 16 of the Diary. Outline how others were affected by your actions – consider students, staff, parents and yourself.

What have you learnt as a result of this action?	What needs to happen to make this situation right?
	7.77
900. 200.
11

What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?
What can you do so that this does not happen again?	If the same situation happens again, outline how you could act differently?

In a similar situation outside of school in the future, could the consequences have been worse? Outline how and why.	This is your second afternoon detention the Term. How will you aim to improve on your actions moving forward?
Explain why the College has detention?	What do you believe should be the consequences for further breeches by you of College expectations?
This form will be given to the issuing det	ention teacher for a follow up conversation.
Comment by issuing teacher regarding conversation:	ention teacher for a follow up conversation.
Issuing teacher signature:	Date:
Student signature:	Date:

